How can I help Kindred Kids?

- Donate a cash contribution directly to Kindred Kids. We are a 501(c)3 and your contributions are tax deductible, charitable contributions.
- Volunteer!! Sign up to be a volunteer, we have projects going on all year.
- Donate your specialized equipment that you are no longer using. We provide wheelchairs, walkers, standers, communication devices, feeding and toileting aids/supplies and so much more to families that have children with special needs for FREE!
- Share info about us with your friends, family and colleagues on Facebook, Google, Instagram, etc.
- Other ways to donate:
  - If you sell on Ebay consider making Kindred Kids a recipient of a percentage of your selling price. Mission Fish is Ebay's way of helping nonprofits, sellers indicate that a portion of the final sale will be donated to Kindred Kids. Contact Wendy for details.
  - Support us through Amazon Smiles. Choose Kindred Kids as your charity to support, purchase your items through this program and Amazon will donate a percentage of each purchase to Kindred Kids!
  - If you want to save money while supporting Kids...buy a Bucky Book! Your $35.00 purchase will save you $$$$ while helping support Kindred Kids and gives you access to fabulous deals at your local merchants, restaurants and entertainment venues.
  - As you gas up your car to go on adventures, consider purchasing KwikTrip Scrip. Scrip is KwikTrip's way of giving back to local nonprofits. If you buy a scrip card for any amount you can use it for any of your purchases at Kwik Trip...food, gas...whatever. And 5% of your purchase price goes to Kindred Kids. Cards are sold at Kindred Kids.
  - United Way...already donating to a great cause, consider writing in Kindred Kids as the charity that you'd like your contribution donated to. They will take out a percentage for processing, but we will receive the balance of the donation. So if you are contributing through your place of employment, please consider designating us as your charity of choice.
